Did you know???

The Riverside-San Bernardino metro area's housing wage increased slightly:

- The hourly wage needed to afford a median-priced one bedroom apartment rose about 1%, from $18.17 in 2016 to $18.40 in 2017. This housing wage is equivalent to an annual income of $38,280.
- The Riverside-San Bernardino metro area has the least expensive rental housing in the Southern California region, but it has higher prices than some peer regions outside of California (Phoenix and Las Vegas).
