Under the Project-Based Voucher Program, the Housing Authority enters into an assistance contract with the owner for specified units and for a specified term. Once the household is deemed eligible, the household enters into a family obligations contract in order to access the subsidized unit. The Housing Authority refers households from its waiting list to the project owner to fill vacancies. Because the assistance is tied to the unit, a family who moves (voluntarily or through eviction) from the unit does not have any right to continued project-based housing assistance.

Applicants will be placed in order based on the time the pre-application was received and specified preferences. Changes to your mailing address, family composition, and income must be submitted in writing by either: mailing it to the address listed at the top of page 1; or emailing to AIB@hacsb.com. You will be contacted by mail when your application is pulled from the waiting list.

Criminal Background Policy: The Housing Authority encourages all persons in need of housing assistance to apply to our available housing programs. The Housing Authority will run a criminal background check when your application is processed for eligibility. Each person's criminal record is reviewed for policy compliance, however HACSB makes every effort to provide access to its housing programs. Consideration of circumstances and evidence of good faith efforts to address past criminal history will be taken into account on a case by case basis.

Loma Linda Veteran's Village is subject to low income tax credit income limits which vary per bedroom size. Income eligibility will be discussed when applicants have been selected from the waiting list, and final eligibility will be determined just prior to a household being offered a unit.

Reasonable Accommodation: If you or a member of your household have a disability and think you might want or need a reasonable accommodation you may request it at any time.

Notice of Right to Reasonable Accommodation

You may ask for this kind of change, which is called a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION.

If you can show that you have a disability and if your request is reasonable (does not pose “an undue financial or administrative burden”), we will try to make the changes you request.

Your request will be answered within thirty (30) business days unless there is a problem getting the information we need or unless you agree to a longer time. We will let you know if we need more information or verification from you or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

If your request is turned down, we will explain the reasons and you can give us more information if you think that will help us reconsider our decision.
