Our updated payment standards are based on the analysis of independent third-party data. The payment standards are based on census tracts and the city names are a suggestive guide and may not be used to accurately determine sub market. Please note that some city boundaries may fall within multiple submarkets. For more information, please use the submarket tracking resource on our website at www.hacsb.com/landlords. Please note, the amounts detailed above are the maximum contract rent that may be approved by bedroom size, however your particular unit's final approved contract rent may be lower.
