MEDIA ADVISORY

Housing Authority's President/CEO To Testify on Special Congressional Designation

Local Initiatives Help San Bernardino County Residents

What: House Financial Services Subcommittee will be holding a hearing titled "Evaluating How HUD's Moving to Work (MTW) Program Benefits Public and Assisted Housing Residents".

Who: Daniel Nackerman, President/CEO, Housing Authority of the County of San Bernardino to testify on how this special Congressional designation titled "Moving to Work" has helped the agency achieve greater administrative efficiencies, save tax payer dollars, help put families on a path towards economic independence and offer a variety of housing choices. This designation was granted to HACSB in 2008, which has given HACSB flexibilities in the way they administer their affordable housing programs. To date, this program has proven to be successful.

Three other housing authority directors and a representative from the U.S. Government Accountability Office are also scheduled to testify.

When: Wednesday, June 26, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. EST

Where: 2128 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515 or via live webcast at the following link:
