What Were The Details Of Your Conviction?

In order to begin cleaning up your criminal record, you first need to know what is on your criminal record. The court will require you to fill out forms. Whether you are requesting a dismissal or a Certificate of Rehabilitation, you will need to know the details of your convictions(s) in order to complete the forms. Also, certain details will affect whether you are eligible. There are several details you will need to know in order to accomplish your goals:

- Your Case Number(s) [Sometimes called docket number.]
- Your Date(s) of Conviction(s) [The date of your plea or verdict.]
- The Code Name(s) and Section Number(s) you were convicted of violating.
- Was there a "Verdict" or did you "Enter a Plea"? If you Entered a Plea, was it "Guilty" or "Nolo Contendere" (No Contest)?
- Were you ordered to serve any time on "Probation"? If so, how long? [Formal and informal probation are treated the same.]
- Were you ordered to pay any "Fines," "Restitution," or "Reimbursement"?
- If you were sentenced to state prison, which one?
- If you were sentenced to state prison, what date were you released?
- If you were released on "Parole," what date did your parole end?

Get a Copy of Your Criminal Records Information

Your criminal records information can be obtained from a variety of sources. Below is a list of the sources most commonly used.

- Your court papers received at the time of conviction.
- Your attorney, parole officer, probation officer, or contacts within the courts or law enforcement community.
- The Superior Court where you were convicted. They will only have information for convictions from that county and not other counties. You will need to make a copy of your order(s) of judgment.
- The California State Department of Justice, Criminal Records Division. They will have your criminal records information for the entire State of California. They are located at 4949 Broadway, First Floor Fingerprinting Office, Sacramento, California. Their phone number is (916) 227-3400. There is a fee, but you may be eligible for a fee waiver. You must provide written proof of your income. It may take several weeks for the record to arrive in the mail.

Your Options.

Depending on your particular situation, you may have the following options:

- If you were convicted of a misdemeanor and are still on probation, you may request early release from probation and file petition to have conviction dismissed. To do this, file a PC 1203.3 petition to have probation terminated early, and PC 1203.4 petition for ex-pungement.
- If you were convicted of a misdemeanor and have successfully completed probation you may file a petition to have conviction dismissed. To do this, file a PC 1203.4 petition for ex-pungement.
- If you were convicted of a misdemeanor and were never given any probation at all, you may file a petition to have conviction dismissed. To do this, file a PC 1203.4a petition for ex-pungement
