The San Bernardino County Library is launching a new digital E-Resources card, which allows customers to have access to all of the Library's online resources. E-Resources card holders will be able to check out e-books through Overdrive, 3M Cloud Library, or Gale e-books; stream free music from Freegal; find job help with JobScout, JobNow, and ReferenceUSA; find homework resources with WorldBook, Kids InfoBits; and much more.

Apply for a digital resources card today to gain access to dozens of resources and popular e-books and audiobooks. New e-titles are added to Overdrive each month for children, teens, and adults.

Individuals interested in applying for a digital E-Resources card can apply online at <http://www.sbclib.org/eContentCard.aspx>. Minors under age 18 will require parent or guardian permission. The E-Resources card can be used to access all digital resources and databases, with the exception of ABC Mouse and Ancestry.com, which are accessible in branch at all 32 San Bernardino County libraries. To learn more about this exciting card, please visit your local San Bernardino County library or visit our website at www.sbclib.org.
